UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF

STAR GAZE

Council job a birthday present

The first out of worker to be employed under the State Government emergency employment grant scheme started work for Altona Council last Friday.

Mr. Guiseppe Dimartino of John Street, Altona North, joined the council work gang which is building a groyne to restore sand on the beach.

Speed

Married with two children, Mr. Dimartino had been out of work for two weeks.

He owes his new job to the speed with which Altona Council responded to a letter from the Local Government Department inviting applications for grants for the immediate creation of additional temporary jobs.

Mr. Dimartino and fellow workers will be paid more than $60 a week.

No food

Mr. Dimartino said last week that he and his brother Alberto who has three children, had been looking for jobs every day since their small concreting business folded because of lack of work.

"I am one of the lucky ones" he said.
"We have had enough money to buy food but the bills have kept coming in."

"We wouldn't have had enough for food if I hadn't got a job by the end of next week."

It was Mr. Dimar-tino's birthday last Friday — in more ways than one.

Commonwealth gives $16,400

Altona Council has been given a $16,400 Commonwealth Grant to provide relief for the city's unemployed.

The grant was made on Wednesday following application by Council the previous Monday.

The money will provide employment for 30 men for a period of 15 to 18 weeks.

Altona's Assistant Town Clerk, Mr. S. Fell, says the work will be available for those registered as unemployed and living in the City of Altona.

Sir Henry Bolte was recently given $1 million by the Commonwealth for employment relief in distressed areas.

Altona was one of the first municipalities to make application for the grant.

The application had to detail the work the money was required for.

The grant covers the cost of wages. Council will provide equipment and this will bring the relief up to $20,400.

The work will be drainage construction on the Altona foreshore; fence erection at Grant Reserve; water servicing and construction at Croft Reserve and maintenance of parks, gardens and drainage.

Mr. Fell told the Star: "There are a lot of people out there getting hungry."

"This grant will help to give the people an opportunity to keep their homes and families intact."

"It is only a matter of easing unemployment and will in no way solve the problem."

Newport District Employment Officer Mr.
J. Scott was unable to give figures on the number of unemployed in the City of Altona but said that he "would easily be able to fill the 30 vacancies made available through the grant."

PLAYER DIES AFTER GAME

The captain of Altona City soccer club's reserve team died following a game against Hakoah at Kim Reserve last Saturday.

Peter Bryden, 25, had been with the club since he was 16 and lived in Altona.

Altona City spokesman Alex Dunlop announced this week that all proceeds from the Noor-denne Cup final at Kim Reserve on Sunday will go to Bryden's widow Jackie and their three-year-old son.

Mr. Dunlop said about 1000 people were expected at the final between Hakoah and George Cross.

The match will start at 3 p.m. and will be preceded at 1 p.m. by a curtain-raiser between Altona City and Preston Makedonia.

Mr. Dunlop said the club was "extremely upset" about Bryden's death.

"He was a great sportsman and a credit to his club," he said.

Mr. Daryl Munn (right) presents Dale Ford, winner of the Altona Lions Club youth of the year quest with his certificate.

Dale Ford is youth of year

Dale Ford, 17, won the Altona Lions Club youth of the year quest last Wednesday night.

Dale, a Higher School Certificate student at St. Paul's College,
North Altona, was one of four contestants.

The other boys were Roman Shaw, 16, from Altona North High School, Kevin Armstrong, 17, (Altona High) and Joseph Reece, 16, (Altona North Tech.).

The boys represented 3500 students from the four major schools of Altona.

The judging panel comprised the Mayor of Altona Cr. Pat Lynch,
Mr. G. H. L. Trevaud, retired principal of Altona Primary School, Mr. Bob Fullarton and Mr. Ian Herbert.

The winner, Dale Ford, made a speech on the meaning of progress to mankind.

He said atomic power was being used as a new and better way for man to kill himself, instead of harnessing it for peaceful projects.

The boys were judged on academic standard, sportsmanship, personality, public speaking and leadership ability.

Each was nominated by the headmaster of his school.

Dale, who has a Commonwealth Scholarship, will now take part in the western suburbs regional judging.

The contest is conducted on a national basis.

Beach clean parade

Hundreds of members from the local organisations will band together on the Altona foreshore this Sunday for an "operation beach clean" parade.

The parade, commencing at 10.30 a.m., replaces a parade which was originally planned for February 20 but cancelled.

Gabriele (alias Little Pattie) of Kookaburra Street is simply furious over the theft of one pair of jeans and a top from her home last weekend.
Ironically the garments were the only items stolen from the line.

Skymantic, a racehorse formerly owned by local businessman Frank Jumpertz, survived a protest to win the first leg of the TAB daily double at Werribee races last week.
Apparently Frank sold the horse a fair while ago to a Deer Park trainer because it had something wrong with one of its front legs.
It would appear that the leg has been fixed because after a year out of racing, Skymantic ran fourth recently at Werribee and last week won at about 50-1. The TAB dividend for the win was more than $15 and the daily double paid about $146.

Kerry Thyer is working overtime at the Tarmac Hotel recruiting young lovelies for the 1972 Miss Altona Apex Quest. The quest on Friday, July 14 will clash with the mayoral ball, which will be held at Shirley Park Receptions.

Nev (of Variety Bar fame) has now moved in on the real estate scene, he tells us.

They're shifting half of Bourke Street into Shannon's Milk Bar at the moment.

Georgie B. is starting to miss his beautiful pink Charger.

Liz Cahill (sister of the golfer) is considering entering a different kind of sport. She wants to buy a trotter.

Members of Altona Life-saving Club were praised for the work they do by Cr. Pat Burns last week.
At the meeting of Altona Council, Mr. Burns said the club had not been given enough recognition for the time its members give during the summer.

Val's Column

Hello Girls,

Think what these vamp colors will do to excite you!

Imagine eyes surrounded with scorched earthy pink and mysterious dark metallic turquoise. Eyes sparkling above plum toned cheeks sheened and highlighted in shine.

Your lips and nails blend beautifully with this new smouldering look—with either a rich muted red or dark smokey purple. Then there is a deep purpley pink.

Miners know that we all have that touch of vamp in us — waiting to come out.

With these new stronger smouldering colors you have dark eyes, vivid exciting new lips and nails.

All these exotic colors by Miners. Pick up the booklet that tells you exactly how to wear these new colors girls. On our Miners stand.

No need to tell you to look after your hands in this weather.

Silken Creme is what you should be using girls. Do you know it is a two-in-one-hand and nail creme?

Silken creme — made by Coty — contains the most modern ingredients, including lecithin and allantoin, to keep hands soft, smooth and white. Silicones to protect against damage from water, detergent and dust.

Vitamins plus protiol to promote strong healthy nails, preventing splitting and flaking.

Remember — before your house work, and after washing hands apply Silken Creme.

Smooth Silken Creme from fingertips to wrists — pay particular attention around your nails massaging into each nail-base separately. Wait — to see your splitting nails improve. See how it softens and revives your dry flaky hands?

Smooths, protects, softens and whiten your hands — while you strengthen and promote strong healthy nails, preventing splitting, breaking and flaking.

Bye.

JAMES W. WATERS
Town Clerk.

About this time last year, a seven-year-old girl was taking her first swimming lesson—complete with water wings and kick board — at the Newport Swimming Academy.

But, unlike most youngsters, Joanne Ryan didn't hesitate before plunging into the water — she loved it right from the start.

And it wasn't long before she had discarded her how really good she is in the next 12 months," he said.

At this stage, however, there is no doubt that Joanne is showing the ability of a world class swimmer.

At the Victorian all-junior championship heats at the Footscray pool last week, she won her heats of the 50-metre butterfly and backstroke and was runner-up in the 50-metre freestyle.

She will be in the finals of these three events at the Olympic Pool next Saturday.

Joanne, who is in grade three at the Annunciation Primary School in Brooklyn, already undertakes an arduous, seven-day-a-week training schedule.

She is at the pool every morning from 6 a.m. to 7.30 a.m., then again in the afternoon from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m.

And she goes back on Saturday and Sunday mornings for more strenuous sessions.

Her parents, naturally, were a little concerned at first.

But now they're used to the idea.

Mr. Ryan, of Cyclamen Street, North Altona, said: "Joanne's coach has assured us that she is a bit of a natural."

"We have a lot of faith in Mr. Splatt, and we will be guided by him."

"She doesn't mind the heavy training programme — in fact, she just loves it."

"She has always liked the water."

"We first realised this when we put a pool in the yard about three years ago."

"She didn't hesitate to jump in and was virtually like a fish straight away."

Joanne's outstanding ability, nevertheless, has come as a surprise to her parents.

"I'm no swimmer and my wife's certainly not," Mr. Ryan said.

"We couldn't swim to save ourselves."

A WORD FROM THE "NATURAL THING", ALTONA'S HEALTH SHOP*Father Time and Ted Whitten

At seven pounds above his best playing weight, "Mr. Football", Ted Whitten, is trying for a comeback to League ranks.

And immediately there are those who feel Whitten is behaving stupidly.

They say he is like a child deprived of his toy: He wants it back desperately.

These critics have rated his chances of a comeback as nil.

On the other hand, there are those who support wholeheartedly his attempt at regaining League stardom.

Those against Whitten's return certainly have a fund of information on their account. This athlete is 38-years-old, and before he reached the VFL record of 321 games, he was already losing the form that had made him a star.

It is true that the ex-Bulldog is overweight and has other heavy demands on his time and energy.

At the core of the critics' complaints, however, is the belief that an old man (38) cannot play good football.

Whitten's supporters in this drama are certainly few in number. Surprisingly, though, they include intelligent people like the Clarke brothers, Ron and Jack.

These supporters suggest that a 38-year-old can be magnificently fit providing he approaches his diet correctly, and gets adequate rest and vigorous exercise.

Great Australian athletes, like Ken Rosewall, Sid Patterson and George Perdon illustrate this argument.

Speed — that all important factor — can be retained, they believe, and evidence of this can be found among many Victorian professional athletes.

Finally, Whitten's skills and experience are unquestionable.

There is no substitute for experience in League football and Whitten has had 20 years of it.

Time will tell the story, and, for my part, I say: "Good luck, Mr. Football."

Report on contract works to council

The City Engineer, Mr. R. C. Simmons, made this report on council contracts to last week's meeting of Altona Council:

- Altona Meadows Subdivision — Stage 2 — P.S. Scheme No. 103: The laying of an underground drain along the west side of Orville Street from Queen Street northerly towards Alma Avenue was completed.
- Altona Meadows Subdivision — Stage 2 — P.S. Scheme No. 104 concrete kerb and channelling was completed in Talbot Street. Drainage pits were constructed in Shirley Street preparatory to the construction of kerb and channelling. Excavation of the road bed in Rosebery Street was completed.
- Princes Highway Service Road: Shaping of nature strip areas behind the recently constructed kerbs along both sides of the service roadway was undertaken and section of Cherry Drain immediately downstream of the road was trimmed.
- Burns Road and Harcourt Road: The fine crushed rock pavement in both roads was primed. Sealing with bitumen and half inch aggregate is about to be undertaken.
- Queen Street — Widening and Reconstruction: In connection with the widening and reconstruction of the section of Queen Street between the Truganina Swamp Outlet Channel and Victoria Street, levelling and consolidation of the road bed was commenced.
- Millers Road — Reconstruction: In connection with the reconstruction of Millers Road between Civic Parade and Esplanade, the laying of an underground drain along the west side of the road from Civic Parade is in progress.

Your rates at work

- Altona Youth Club Building: Foundations for the extension of the Youth Club building for use by the St. John Ambulance Brigade was commenced.
- Line Marking: Parking bay lines were painted at Harrington Square and Blackshaws Road shopping centres. Traffic guide lines and islands were painted at the intersections of Queen Street and Maidstone Street and of Civic Parade and Altona Road.
- Drainage: Following very severe thunder storms on February 11, on February 15 (when 91 points was recorded at the Council Depot in ¼ hour), and on February 16, local flooding occurred at a number of places throughout the municipality.

[On February 17, Cherry Lake was full and approximately 6-inches of water flowed over the spillway.

Water from Kororoit Creek covered Altona Road for a distance of approximately 1000 feet from the ford and spread over a large part of Altona Sports Park.]

Pits and drains at trouble spots are being checked and cleaned where necessary.

Lids of garbage bins, tyres, plastic sheeting, bottles and miscellaneous items that could result in blocked or partly blocked drains have been removed from some pits and drains.

Ratepayers should be educated not to leave heaps of grass cuttings, or any materials likely to obstruct the drainage system, in street channels.

NEW HIGH SCHOOL MEANS ROLL DROP

The number of pupils attending Altona North High school this year has dropped by about 170 over last year.

This is due to the establishment of Paisley High school which now has a roll of about 160 pupils.

The Education Department has arranged for Paisley High to attend at Altona North for the first three weeks of the school year, because the new school has been delayed by water problems.

This necessitated the inclusion of four temporary classrooms and the removal of several well-established trees, some of which were planted by the first principal of Altona North.

Students have been told vandalism at the new school could result in delaying the opening slightly.

PIROUETTES DO WELL

A member of the Altona student Kerry Eustace Pirouette Amateur Syn-chronised Swimming Club won the event with a score of 117.25, from Jan Beaumont, of NSW, with 113.75.

Kerry and Christine Turvey were second in the duet event with a score of 111.32, less than a point behind Jan Beaumont and Judith Pettiford, of NSW, with 111.61.

Victoria was second in the teams event.

Footscray High School

Toast '72; breath .140

The party was to welcome 1972... but the breath test at Footscray police station was .140....

The story was told to Mr. G. Miller, SM, at Footscray Court last Thursday.

And it led to Kevin Donald McLeish, who gave police an address in Yea, losing his licence for at least six months and having to pay a $60 fine.

McLeish pleaded not guilty to a charge of having driven with a blood-alcohol content exceeding .05.

Police told the court they followed a car driven by McLeish in Millers Road, Altona, about 1.50 p.m. on January 1 this year.

At one stage the two wheels on the right of the car had mounted kerbing on the street.

McLeish had said he had attended a party and had been drinking, but he did not know how much.

A breath test at Footscray police station had revealed a blood-alcohol content of .140.

Mr. Miller cancelled McLeish's driving licence and ruled he could not apply for another licence for at least six months.

The latest: A sexy milk bar!

For years Chloe has adorned Young and Jackson's — the talking point of many a bleary eyed sot.

But one important section of the community has been banned from seeing her — women.
But women can feel segregated no more—Altona has its own Chloe. And in a perfectly respectable place — a milk bar.

Shannon's milk bar is situated in Pier Street at the beach end and for the past three or four months has featured large paintings of not one but two partly clad dusky maidens.

The paintings are identical and paired up on the distant wall.

And reactions are varied. Few are disgusted. As proprietress Mrs. Anne Shannon points out: "If they were white it would be different, but people are used to the idea of colored people looking like that."

Her brother, Mr. John Wilson, quips. "The fella's like it, always say they have got a nice pair of boobs."

So why — "well, it's different," says Anne Shannon. "And people like it and it brightens up the place."

Bill and Anne Shannon have been in their Pier Street milk bar for six years and in milk bars for 30 years.

They have previously been in Williamstown and Blythe Street, Altona.

And they are holding a competition to choose a name for their dusky twins.

Anyone can enter and there will be a suitable prize when the winner is chosen at the end of March.

"Habitually criminal driver" suggestion by a reader

A reader of The Star has suggested that people who have long records of driving offences be officially branded by the courts as "habitually criminal drivers".

The reader, whose name and address have been given to the editor as a sign of good faith, writes:

SIR, — Courts in NSW frequently officially brand men with long records as 'Habitual Criminals.' As an expatriate of Victoria who spent some time in NSW and returned to Victoria only recently, I have seen enough to make it clear this reduces crime.

I would suggest this could also help lessen the road toll in Victoria.

It could become part of the points system of rating drivers' ability to undertake the tremendous responsibility of driving a car or other vehicle. After losing a number of points
— the number could be given by police and road safety experts — the offending driver could be declared an Habitually Criminal Driver.

For this to be policed properly, each applicant issued with a driving license would have to be fingerprinted, but the end result could keep many idiot drivers off the roads.

If a policeman was suspicious he could demand that the applicant be fingerprinted or face a charge — in much the same way as the breath analysis system operates at present.

Wayne was partnering Stephanie Whitecross in the B special section.

Maxine Keown and Bev. Colvin won their way into the grand final by defeating Louise Stracey and Wendy Jeffs of Altona.

The junior section also included Altona players winning their way into the semi-finals.

Alan Findlay, John Bennett and Greg Whitecross are in the semi-final of the singles and Alan Findlay with John Bennett and Greg Whitecross with Greg Clark are in the semi-finals of the doubles.

Greg Brown won his way into the semi-finals of the section 4 singles and Peter Findlay with Greg Brown have reached the grand final.

Players are asked to check The Advertiser for the draw held next Sunday.

Junior boys, who are not playing in the championship are asked to attend at the Altona courts on Sunday morning.

Senior Teams for March 4: A Grade v. Kingsville at home — V. Thomas, G. Findlay, L. Findlay, E. Gordon.

ROADWORTHY TESTS

MOTORING SECTION

by PAUL CODY

Ross may even talk you out of it!

Let's face it: Nobody completely trusts a car salesman. He might be in fact 100 per cent. genuine, but you can't convince the customer of that. He's fair game.

They (or their friend... or a friend of a friend) always have a car which is out of action sitting in the garage.

And two years of hire-purchase payments are still owed. Sure, there are plenty of car salesmen only too willing to take advantage of the naive buyer. Yet there is another side of the story.

One man who knows is Ross Todaro (right), the owner-manager of Ross Michael Motors, at Newport.

At the ripe old age of 25, he has already seen every side of the car trade.

PATIENCE

He is a qualified motor mechanic and has sold cars, managed several car yards, been a car wholesaler and now is manager of his own yard.

Here's his opinion: "Everyone knocks the car salesman, but the job needs a lot of patience."

"He has to wait for people to make up their minds, then sit down and carefully explain the contract and everything to them."

"I consider it vitally important to take time to explain these things."

"I can sincerely say that I have never over-committed anyone."

"I always ask what they are earning and work out what they can afford."

"In fact, I've probably lost a lot of customers by giving them too much advice."

"They then go up the road and buy a car at $80 a month — and from there on their problems start."

Ross says his varied experience in the car trade is his biggest asset as a dealer.

"I will back my experience in the motor car industry," he said.

"I've worked on them and sold them, and I can advise people on all aspects of finance and insurance."

AMBITIOUS

"Whatever a person wants, I can get it for them whether I have it in stock or not."

"Actually, I could probably operate without a yard at all."

If the impression hasn't already come over, Ross Todaro is a fast-talking, ambitious young man.

But he is also a deep-thinking young man, who has been actively involved in the community.

In 1966, he was the founder of the El Dorado Rod and Custom Club, basically a group of youngsters who liked cars. But it was more than just that.

Ross said: "The idea was for a group of fellows with the one interest to get together."

"But we also did something for the community."

DISCIPLINE

"We were tied up with the Hospital Helpers Association and we raised quite a deal of money for the Footscray Hospital."

"It was hard to teach 18-19 year olds discipline."

"We were very strict on road laws — if a member was booked, he was stood out of the club for a period."

"We often showed road safety films and placed great importance on developing a responsible attitude to cars."

Ross Michael Motors opened in August last year, and Ross is happy with the progress he has made.

Among his attractive offers are:

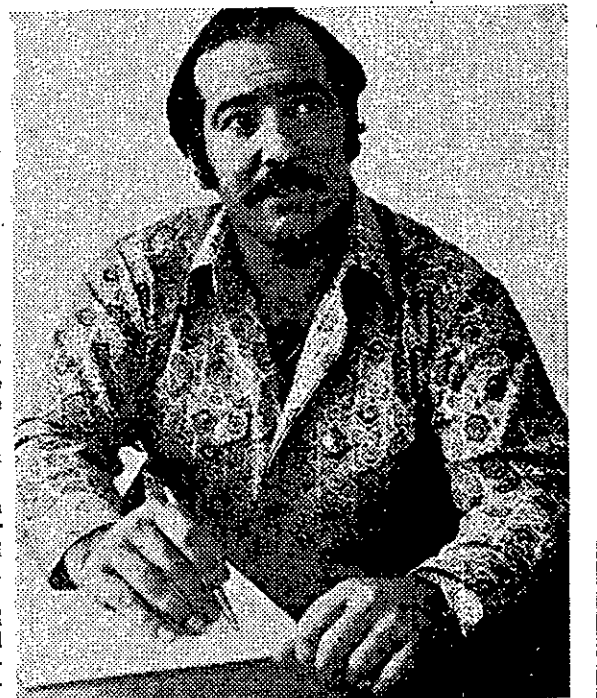

• Cars sold with roadworthy certificates are repaired at no cost for six months.

• Genuine people, like married couples, are given the car of their choice for a weekend — without obligation — and any faults are rectified at no cost.

• After sales service is carried out on a 50-50 basis, using the award rates of the VACC.

Ross is the type of man who should do well in the highly competitive, kill-or-be-killed business of selling used cars.

And he might even prove that used car buyers — although wisely wary — need not be sceptical.

● Ross Todaro, owner-manager of Ross Michael Motors at Newport.

Signs pulled down, rails smashed . .

VANDALS HIT PARK, PIER

Vandals on the rampage in Altona during the weekend tore down signs on Logan Reserve and smashed rails on the Altona pier.

Two sleepers were thrown from the pier into the water.

The sleepers and other timber had been placed on the pier by Public Works Department maintenance men, who are carrying out repairs.

Altona police are seeking information which may lead to the apprehension of a group of youths seen at the sites of the damage between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Saturday.

A police spokesman said the two signs pulled down on Logan Reserve had rules and regulations of the reserve on them.

He said that one of the signs had been taken from the reserve.

Later on Saturday, constables Russell Bradlet and Alan Kennedy, of Altona police, picked up a 16-year-old youth and charged him for loitering with intent to commit a felony.

The youth was observed trying to open the doors of a number of parked cars along the Esplanade.

The incident occurred at 9.5 p.m.

TALK ON NATURE PHOTOGRAPHY

Williamstown Camera Club's programme for tonight's meeting should attract wildlife lovers.

A Victorian Amateur Photographers Society lecture speaker will explain the challenging aspects of nature photography.

Nature photography calls for all the skill and adventure of hunting and more, because it calls for the photographer to get closer to the animal or bird to obtain good results.

Events planned for the club soon include a demonstration of latest photography equipment.

Brian Bindon, of Gobles Photographic Centre in Footscray, will show equipment.

Also planned are outings to Multivision and the 300.

Youth club elects officers

The Williamstown Youth Club held its annual meeting last Friday before a good attendance.

The following members were elected. ● Vice-presidents: Mr. G. McCullum and Mr. N. Webb. ● President: Mr. T. Pike.

● Secretary: Mr. D. Lawerson.

● Treasurer: Mr. R. Malbon.

● Assistant secretary: Mr. K. Howard.

● Manager: Mr. F. Brown.

Committee: Mesdames Howard, Pedely, Webb, Brown and Smith, Messrs. Milton, Bristow, Reitman, Brown, Howard, Webb, Lawerson, Malbon.

New committee members elected were Messrs. McCallum, Pike, Jones, Hudson and Tack.

In your time— A GUIDE

TO LEISURE

By PETER VAUGHAN

Both of the records I have selected for review this week have a quiet, pensive presence about them although one tends to be much more melancholy than the other.

They are both records to be played at a particular time and such a time will of course vary as to individual taste.

For me both are late night records for they are relaxing and meditative, just the thing to unwind with and delve into private thoughts.

Melanie Safka's Gather Me follows on the heels of her previous success Candles in the Rain.

All the songs in the album were written by Melanie herself and they are a pot-pourri of love songs, statements, morbid tales and just plain nonsense rhymes.

All these make for a record which does not exactly have happiness as its central theme.

Yet it can be appreciated and admired for what it is.

It is unfortunate that Melanie's gravelly voice becomes irritating because this detracts from the album as a whole.

So too does her resemblance to Buffy Sainte-Marie in style and voice, for one keeps wondering if Melanie sounds like Buffy or vice-versa.

However once these distractions are accounted for the record is well-worth listening to as it has been put together with thought and imagination.

On it are such tracks as the bouncy single success Brand New Key, the plaintive cry for individuality Little Bit of Me and the morbid Railroad, a song of suicide.

Not everyone's cup of tea but there again we can't always look at the world through rose-colored glasses.

Brazilian Byrd has accomplished guitarist Charlie Byrd doing his bossa-nova thing with his trio.

This time they are concentrating on the Brazilian sounds of such greats as Joao Gilberto and Antonio Carlos Jobim.

Three tracks are composed by the professional Byrd who blends his guitar work in well with the excellent backing to provide a record which is just right for late night listening when the mood turns to relaxation and romance.

What could be better than sipping chilled champagne by candlelight and listening to the beautiful chords of that bossa-nova classic Desafinado, or the great jazz number Limehouse Blues played so attractively by Byrd?

Nothing except an actual sojourn to the heart of Brazil but Charlie Byrd certainly provides the next best thing imaginable.

SUMMARY:
Melanie Safka, "Gather Me", Buddha Records, 2318050, $5.95, The Charlie Byrd Trio, "Brazilian Byrd", Riverside Records, 673027, $5.95.

Soccer finalists decided this week

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Footscray, J.U.S.T. and Croatia should narrowly win their Ampol Cup semi-finals at Olympic Park this week.

Croatia will meet George Cross on Friday night and J.U.S.T. will tackle Melbourne on Sunday night.

Croatia and J.U.S.T. were the first and second in Group A following the last two preliminary rounds last Friday.

Melbourne and George Cross were the top two in Group B.

Final standings were:

Group A: Croatia, 3; J.U.S.T., 3; 5:3; Wilhelmina, 2; 3:4; Polonia, 1; 3:7.

Group B: Melbourne, 5; 6:2; George Cross, 3; 5:4; Hellas, 2; 5:7; Juventus, 2; 2:5.

Croatia's trump card against George Cross will be brilliant striker Billy Vojtek, who has been the outstanding player of the preliminary rounds.

Together with Slobodan Zoraja of J.U.S.T. and Eugene Olah of Melbourne, Vojtek with three goals, is equal top scorer in the tournament.

Vojtek's speed, experience and ball artistry make him the focal point of the Croatia team. Opposing defences know this well but they are rarely able to keep him subdued for the whole 70 minutes.

Vojtek's international partner, Jimmy Mackay has not yet reached top form but he is a big occasion player and the importance of this semi-final is sure to bring out the talents that have made him a natural choice in the national team.

It is possible that Martin Bohan, who made his debut in the second half against J.U.S.T. last week, will play a full match on Friday.

Boban, who last week arrived from Croatia where he played for FC Junak Sinj in the second division, showed a lot of skill and aggression against J.U.S.T. and is a better choice than Croatia's weak link in attack — Brian Adam.

The Cross was a rejuvenated team last week, when it crushed Hellas 4-1.

The reason was the return to form of Kevin Walker and to a lesser extent, John Gardiner — probably the most effective link duo in State League.

But George Cross has neither the fitness of Croatia nor the same strength in attack and for these reasons, it has little chance of causing an upset on Friday.

J.U.S.T. v. Melbourne

Melbourne has found a match-winner in the tricky Eugene Olah, who has been taken out of midfield and scored three goals in as many matches as a makeshift striker.

Fed well by the speedy Joe Palinkas on the right and the tricky Steve Bleskany on the left, Olah is using all the guile and skill that made him a Yugoslav youth international.

His speed, positional sense and ball-playing skill have been overshadowed only by Billy Vojtek in the preliminary rounds.

Olah gets a lot of help from the midfield trio of McCarthy, Shanks and McCollan and to put the finishing touches on a talented team, there is a defence that boasts state players Fabian Juhász and Jozsef Szabo.

But in J.U.S.T., Melbourne faces a collection of some of the most talented players in Victoria, men like Zoraja, Buljevic, Rujevic, Rosca, Milisavljevic and Loganic.

Granted they don't always use their full potential but it's odds-on that a place in the Ampol Cup final is sufficient incentive to make them fight for a win.

J.U.S.T.'s big problem is its midfield. Only Slobodan Lukic is being used as a mobile linkman, roaming the full length of the pitch and he can't do the job by himself.

If Zoraja and Buljevic are to be given enough opportunities to score winning goals, Marian Lopatic must be unshackled from his defensive role and given the job of helping Lukic.

If this is not done, Melbourne with its powerful midfield, could narrowly beat the 1971 champion.

Keilor has bought no new players to meet the challenge of the State League. In fact it has lost its ace goal-scorer Peter Blohm who has returned to Germany.

Keilor has expressed interest in Melbourne's transfer-listed Alistair Scott but the team will need at least three or four other recruits.

Box Hill, on the other hand, is reported to be confident following the signing of a number of Englishmen.

This, coupled with its State League experience, should give the Hillmen victory and should open the eyes of the Keilor committee.

The curtain-raiser on Friday will be between Hakoah and Fitzroy Alexander, with Hakoah favored to win.

Vojtek stars

A great performance capped with a late goal by Billy Vojtek enabled Croatia to beat Footscray J.U.S.T. 2-1 in an Ampol Cup match at Olympic Park last Friday.

Croatia took an early lead through Bill McIntyre in the sixth minute and its greater pace and fitness had Footscray floundering for the first half.

But J.U.S.T. became more aggressive in the second half and had it not been for Vojtek's clever goal in the 50th minute, the Footscray team might have clinched a draw.

Branko Buljevic came close to scoring in the 41st minute when his header hit the bar.

In the 60th minute a Steve Rujevic cross was relayed by Slobodan Lukic to Slobodan Zoraja who scored from close range.

Best players, Croatia: Vojtek, McArthur, Wixey, J.U.S.T.: Rujevic, Zikovic, Lopatic.

Teams:

Croatia: Lapac, Wixey, McArthur, Kondariou, Ivanovic, Benic (sub, Gunn 63rd), McKay, Adam (Gunn 55th), McIntyre Vojtek, Hadjivadic, J.U.S.T.: Vujatovic (Milisavljevic 51st), Rosca, Zivkovic, Lopatic, Micic, Milinov, Lukic, Velickovic (Stankovic half time); Zoraja, Jankovic, Buljevic.

After missing at least three easy chances in the first half, Melbourne's centre-forward Eugene Olah finally found the target to cap a good display with two goals.

It was a match-winning effort, as Melbourne beat Juventus 2-0.

Juventus rarely looked capable of winning and coach Paddy Sloan was obviously worried at half time, when he brought on substitutes Cromble and McRobert.

But they made little difference, for in the 50th minute, Olah beat goalkeeper, Mike Harby and defender Pat Della Rocca to score in spectacular fashion.

Juventus' defence was floundering against the speed and open play of Olah and his fellow strikers Steve Bleskany and Joe Palinkas.

Palinkas was particularly damaging and it was his effectiveness on the right wing that caused the replacement of left back Barbieri.

Melbourne was awarded a penalty after Olah had been flattened while not in possession but from the spot, Fabian Juhász blasted over the bar in the 57th minute.

Two minutes later Palinkas stormed down the wing and let go a cracking shot that Harby could only deflect.

Olah was on hand to compensate by putting the ball into the net.

Best players, Melbourne: Olah, Palinkas, Shanks; Juventus: Irvine, Goodwin, Perin.

Teams: Melbourne: Odri, McGowan, Juhász, Szabo, Kelly; Shanks, McCarthy, McCollan; Palinkas, Olah, Biskany.

With Kevin Walker hitting top form in midfield and getting good support from Gardiner and Fox, George Cross crushed Hellas 4-1 last Wednesday.

Robin Hayward opened the scoring in the 10th minute with a perfect shot from the edge of the penalty area.

Five minutes after half-time Avlonidis fouled Epifano and George Cross was awarded a penalty.

However, Derek Ricks, who came up from defence to take the kick, shot over the bar.

Three minutes later Kevin Kelly guided home a low corner kick and in the ninth minute a penalty was awarded when Daperis fouled Walker.

This time captain-coach John Sanchez took the kick and he made no mistake.

In the 50th minute Walker did a quick exchange with Gardiner and scored from eight yards.

Hellas got its consolation goal from a Jimmy Armstrong free kick in the 52nd minute.

Five minutes later Mike Pye handled a high ball intended for Czes Plaskota, and Adamczyk converted the resultant penalty.
